School Management Committee (SMC) Policy

Objective

To provide governance, oversight, and strategic direction for Eternal Light Public School (ELPS) in alignment with CBSE Affiliation By-Laws.

Legal Requirement

As per CBSE Affiliation By-Laws 2023 (Clause 10.6 to 10.9), the constitution of a School Management Committee (SMC) is mandatory for all affiliated schools.

Composition

The committee shall consist of 11 to 21 members including:

- Principal (Member Secretary)
- Correspondent/Manager (Chairperson)
- At least 2 Teacher Representatives
- At least 2 Parent Representatives
- 1 Educationist
- 1 Member of the Trust/Society
- 1 Non-teaching Staff Representative
- 1 Community Member (Optional)

At least 50% of the members should be women.

Tenure

Each SMC will have a tenure of two (2) years. Members may be reappointed, ensuring continuity and rotation.

Roles & Responsibilities

The SMC is responsible for:

- Policy formulation and review
- Monitoring academic and infrastructure standards
- Reviewing financial planning and fee structure
- Assisting with recruitment and disciplinary proceedings
- Overseeing school safety and regulatory compliance
- Supporting school development plans

Meeting Requirements

- The SMC shall convene at least twice a year. Minutes must be documented, signed by the Chairperson and Member Secretary, and stored securely.
- Policy Review
- This policy is reviewed annually by the school management and amended as needed to comply with updated CBSE guidelines.
